UAW has won the auto pattern in negotiations with Eaton, Yale and Towne Inc., according to IEB Member-at-Large Nelson Jack Edwards. Some 5,000 workers in Ohio, Wisconsin and Michigan, members of nine UAW locals, will get the benefit and wage package first negotiated with Ford Motor Co. in October. Wage raises matching the Ford settlement are retroactive to Dec. 18. All fringe improvements are also patterned after the auto agreement.

Those "cards and letters" of well-wishers are pouring into Detroit's Metropolitan Hospital for Olga Madar, member-at-large of UAW's executive board, who is recuperating from a minor heart ailment. Doctors say she is progressing satisfactorily, advise a period of rest following extensive testing.
